Prostate Cancer Facts

Each year over 230,000 new cases of Prostate Cancer are diagnosed and over 30,000 men die OF prostate cancer in the United States. In North Carolina, there will be 6,810 new cases and ~900 deaths this year alone. During the next 10 years, the number of men diagnosed with prostate cancer is expected to increase by 40% to over 300,000 a year. The number of prostate cancer deaths could rise to 50,000 per year

During prostate cancer's early silent stages, patients are effectively treated in as many as 97% of cases. A patient diagnosed with prostate cancer after experiencing physically uncomfortable symptoms can be treated successfully in only about 30% of the cases. The facts are clear, early diagnosis increases chances of successful treatment.

PCCNC

The Prostate Cancer Coalition of North Carolina (PCCNC) is a community of volunteers dedicated to the defeat of prostate cancer.

PCCNC promotes awareness and early detection of prostate cancer and best medical practices treatment throughout North Carolina. Their goal is to reduce deaths from Prostate Cancer in North Carolina by 50% in 5 years. For more information visit their website: www.pccnc.org.
